The Reconquest of Paradise? Sascha Krannich 2017 The book analyzes the phenomenon of how indigenous migrants, who escaped social discrimination and economic exclusion in Mexico, are building a well institutionalized, transnational migrant community in the United States. During this process of self-empowerment, indigenous migrant leaders use transnational networks on different levels to negotiate indigenous membership, identity, and opportunities of political participation. Over the last few decades, they were able to improve living conditions of members in the migrant community as well as indigenous home communities in Mexico. Dissertation. El derecho de la naturaleza Everaldo Lamprea Montealegre 2018-12-15 El Antropoceno, sostienen los especialistas, es una era en la cual ya no existe una naturaleza separada y distinta de los seres humanos, sino que el mundo entero es un producto conjunto de la actividad humana y de fenómenos no humanos subyacentes, mezclados de manera indisoluble. La idea ha tomado fuerza desde comienzos de este milenio, pero en realidad se remonta hasta Alexander von Humboldt. Así, inspirado en la noción de la naturaleza como una red de vida propuesta por el científico prusiano, este libro parte del supuesto de que en nuestra era antropocénica los seres humanos actuamos como entidades geológicas con la capacidad de alterar la composición química de la atmósfera y de los mares, de derretir la Antártida, de transformar el clima del planeta y de propiciar una extinción masiva de especies. Con base en tal premisa, en esta obra se sostiene que el derecho ambiental debe entenderse como el conjunto de instituciones formales e informales mediante las cuales se busca mitigar el daño que causamos los seres humanos, en nuestra calidad de fuerzas naturales o entidades geológicas, al bienestar y los intereses de las generaciones futuras, de la comunidad global y de especies distintas de la nuestra.

Exponentiële organisaties Michael S. Malone 2015-03-14 Een must read voor ceo's, ondernemers en beleidsmakers die niet alleen de noodzaak voor verandering zien, maar ook aan de slag willen. In een tijd waarin ontelbaar veel nieuwe mogelijkheden en kansen zich voordoen, is een nieuw soort business opgestaan: de exponentiële organisatie. Deze bedrijven zijn in staat een groeicurve te laten zien die exponentieel is, dankzij de integrale toepassing van onder andere community's, big data, slimme algoritmes en nieuwe technologieën. Zij laten de traditionele lineaire bedrijven ver achter zich. Salim Ismail, Yuri van Geest en Michael S. Malone onderzochten honderden startups en interviewden tientallen ceo's van de snelst groeiende organisaties (zoals Airbnb, Netflix, Tesla, Waze, Arianna Huffington en Chris Anderson). In dit boek brengen ze de ontwikkelingen op organisatorisch en technologisch gebied in kaart en ze presenteren een raamwerk van interne en externe factoren waarmee elke organisatie, of het nu om een start-up of een multinational gaat, een exponentiële organisatie kan worden.

Personalizar la evaluación Saville Kushner 2002 Personalizar la evaluación cuestiona los supuestos comunes en la evaluación de programas invirtiendo la relación tradicional entre éstos y las personas. En lugar de hacer hincapié en el programa - como el contexto dentro del cual «leer» la vida de las personas y medir su significación - debemos documentar la experiencia individual y de grupo, utilizando esto como una lente a través de la cual "leer" los programas sociales y medir su significación en la vida de las personas. Este planteamiento unifica los enfoques de evaluación democrática y participativa, explorando sus complejidades. KUSHNER utiliza aquí gran cantidad de ejemplos y estudios de casos para ilustrar cómo se puede lograr una comprensión más profunda de la evaluación de programas a través de una variedad de cuestiones y aplicaciones. Asimismo, estudia tres preocupaciones principales que se hallan en el núcleo del proceso de evaluación: - Aprender la manera de realizar la evaluación por medio de los relatos de la experiencia, a menudo confusa y desordenada. - Comprender el rol de la evaluación como una forma de expresión personal y acción política. - Encontrar formas de dar cabida a políticas y programas de evaluación que expliquen la vida, el trabajo y las ambiciones de las personas. Esta obra nos presenta una valiosa aportación para quienes se inician en la investigación y la evaluación, así como para el alumnado y profesionales que trabajan en el ámbito de la evaluación y utilizan métodos cualitativos y etnográficos. Saville KUSHNER es Director del Centro para la Investigación en Educación y Democracia en la University of the West de Inglaterra
